She Goes to the Assistance of Men Injured In a Runaway.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 22.-Mrs. Grover Cleveland, wife of the former president of the United States, was the heroine of a driving accident here which beau-tifully illustrated her fine character. She had been in Trenton making several alls. It was about 6 o'clock when her quipage started homeward by the way f the macadamized Princeton pike. When outside of the city a wild team cas encountered, which was driven by was shoomitered, which was driven by Richard Stockton, a near neighbor of the Clevelands in Princeton. The horse was unmanageable, and was dashing down hard on the Cleveland turnout. The coachman, by several quick movements, turned the Cleveland team out of the path of the flying horse. It was along bound.

Governor Stanley will extend an in-lution urging her to accept. Miss Gould, in company with her brother, Frank Jay Gould, and a num-ber of the officials of the Missouri Pa-they will return east.

The telegram from Miss Gould suggested to the reception committee that as Miss Gould has been conspicuous in the recent war on account of her charity towards, and her sympathy with the American soldiers, it would be fitting to invite her to be the guest of the Blobbs—"I heard a lecturer last week who gets $500 a night."
